

How We Collect Outstanding Debts

9 Step Process by

Before Collection

1. Identify the Problem ASAP!

The sooner you can identify a problematic debt the better, because the older a debt becomes the trickier it is to collect!

This could be due to difficulty in locating debtor details, old invoices, etc.

2. Get in Touch

Once you have identified a problematic debt, this is how you can get in touch:

Via website form at atradiuscollections.com/contact.

3. Register as a Customer

All new customers need to register with us.

We agree to terms and you sign a Debt Collection Agreement. It's that simple!

During Collection

4. Submit a Case

A single / multiple debt case(s) is submitted via: Collect@Net.

The more debtor contact information and supporting documentation (such as copy invoices and/or statement of account) you can give us the better!

5. Confirmation of Case Receipt

A single / multiple debt case(s) is submitted via: Collect@Net.

The more debtor contact information and supporting documentation (such as copy invoices and/or statement of account) you can give us the better!

6. Case Assigned to Collector

Our professional collectors are experienced in local collections procedures, legal processes, cultures and importantly speak the same language as your debtor.

We will use every available resource to recover your debt, while respecting your debtor relationships.

7. Contact Debtor for Payment

A single / multiple debt case(s) is submitted via: Collect@Net.

The more debtor contact information and supporting documentation (such as copy invoices and/or statement of account) you can give us the better!

8. Regular Case Updates

Our professional collectors are experienced in local collections procedures, legal processes, cultures and importantly speak the same language as your debtor.

We will use every available resource to recover your debt, while respecting your debtor relationships.

Upon Successful Collection

9. Debt Paid in Full / Installments

Our professional collectors are experienced in local collections procedures, legal processes, cultures and importantly speak the same language as your debtor.

We will use every available resource to recover your debt, while respecting your debtor relationships.

Insights and Communication

Your company's financial health is our priority, so sending insightful industry reports, as well as tips to keep your cash-flow in a healthy state is how we preserve that.

Not yet subscribed to our FREE Insights Communication? Then opt-in today!

atradiuscollections.com/insights

